Each day we'll focus on one or two themes to give you time to assimilate your new sensations. For example: foot grip, anticipation... but also knot tying, dynamic belaying, communication in the roped party, setting up a top rope, folding ropes... all skills that will enable you to climb more safely. Abseiling and self-jamming techniques will also be covered. Every day, the instructor will give you technical tips to help you achieve your individual objectives.

Climbing : special warning

Rock climbing as all mountain activities have some level of risk particularly: falling rocks, falling to the ground (failure to belay), etc.

To reduce the hazards that they are exposed to, climbers must wear their helmet at the foot of the cliffs, while climbing and belaying, and follow the safety instructions given by the instructor.

You must be aware of these risks and accept them when booking.

Guiding

By state-certified mountain guides or trainees mountain guides (aspirant guides) from the Roc Écrins team. They will have a VHF radio connected to the emergency services, a satellite phone or a mobile phone. They will also have a collective first-aid kit.

*A trainee mountain guide is a guide in training who is authorised to work and supervise climbs from their third year of training. They are not beginners, as it takes several years of practice and training to build up a list of routes and have the experience and technical level required to enter the mountain guide training course.

Insurances

To take part in one of our stays, you must be properly insured for the chosen activity (rescue and repatriation costs) in the event of an incident or accident occurring during the stay. (We strongly recommend that this also includes cancellation cover). It is your responsibility to check the cover provided by your personal insurance policy. If you do not have such an insurance, you can take out the EUROP ASSISTANCE contract when you sign up. The amount of the "ASSISTANCE" insurance covering repatriation, rescue and search costs represents 2.4% of the price of the stay.
